PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH
The following names have been placed on our altar.
Please remember in your prayers:
BY THE WAY...

• Each year in the summer, every parish in the diocese is asked to welcome a Missionary Priest or Sister to the parish. This is part of a “Missionary Coop Plan” which exists pretty much throughout the United States. The visit of the missionary each year gives us the opportunity to become more aware of the universal nature of the Church, and also to assist the missions with our donations in the Missionary Coop Collection.

This year, Saint Anthony’s has been selected as one of the two parishes in the diocese for the Paterson Diocesan Missions. That means that no foreign priest or sister is coming to make the appeal, but the second collection on August 26-27 will be used to help fund the foreign missions which are directly subsidized by the Diocesan Mission Office.

Beginning in the 1960s, the Pope Saint John XXIII invited the American Dioceses to reach out in assistant with both money and personnel to the priest-short diocese of Latin America. Many of the American Dioceses responded generously to that call. The Paterson Diocese undertook the staffing and funding of two parishes - one in Caranavi, Bolivia and the other in lea, Peru. Among the several Paterson priests who went down to help staff these missions were two directly tied to Saint Anthony’s. Our parochial vicar at the time, Father James Janucci, volunteered for the missions as did Mae Grant’s brother, Father John Heusser. For a time, Saint Anthony’s had a Parish Mission Club to help raise funds to support these priests.

Today, the Paterson Diocese still helps support these two parishes, and also assists some twenty priests and sisters who are natives of our diocese and are currently working in the missions in places like South Africa, South Korea, Namibia, Ethiopia, Philippines, Peru, Kenya, Mexico, Indonesia, Sierra Leone, and Bolivia. The Missionary Coop Plan Collection on August 26-27 will be sued to help support these missions and missionaries.

• A couple of weeks ago, a parishioner asked about the Eucharistic Prayers (Canons), specifically, what is the rationale governing which Eucharistic Prayer is used at each Mass. A good question.

The Eucharistic Prayer forms the heart of the second part of Mass, the Liturgy of the Eucharist. It begins with the “preface” and continues through the consecration of the bread and wine, and concludes with the Doxology, or “Great Ament.” It is the center and high point of the entire celebration.” In the dialogue leading up to the Preface, the priest associates the whole congregation with himself in this act: (Lift up your hearts … Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.) All the Eucharistic Prayers have six elements:

Epiclesis - the invoking of the Holy Spirit (Send forth your spirit upon these gifts ... )
Institution Narrative - (On the night he was betrayed, he took bread ... )
Anamnesis - Recalling Christ's death and resurrection (Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection ... )
Oblation -Offering (Look we pray upon the oblation of your Church ... )
Intercessions - (Remember Lord your Church spread throughout the world ... )
Doxology - (Through him and with Him, and in Him ... )

At the present time we have four Eucharistic Prayers in regular use, each one with its own unique characteristics.

Eucharistic Prayer I - also referred to as the "Roman Canon," was, for many centuries, the only Eucharistic Prayer. It was used in every Mass, day after day. When Mass began to be celebrated in the modern languages beginning in the 1960s, additional Eucharistic Prayers were added to help alleviate the repetitiveness of having just one prayer. It is longer and more solemn by nature. It is marked by two lists of saints, special inserts for major feasts (Christmas, Epiphany, etc.) and has four parts which can be pronounced by concelebrants. Today it tends to be used for more solemn occasions, or occasions when there are multiple concelebrants. I tend to use it whenever we have the feast day of one of the saints who are mentioned by name in this Canon.

Eucharistic Prayer II - this is the oldest and shortest of the four canons. The wording of this Eucharistic Prayer is almost completely derived from the wording described by Saint Hippolytus of Rome in his "Apostolic Tradition" of 215 A.D. In it, Hippolytus gives us the first real extensive description of Catholic worship in early Rome. This Eucharistic Prayer has its own proper (but not mandatory) Preface. Because of its brevity, it is often the "go to" Eucharistic Prayer, particularly on weekdays.

Eucharistic Prayer III - somewhat longer than Prayer II, there are two unique features of this Prayer. It is the only one which makes provision for invoking, by name, the saint of the day, or of the local place. In addition, this Canon has a specific insert for use at funeral Masses. I tend to use this Canon at all funerals, at weekday Masses where there is a saint's feast day, and on most Sundays.

Eucharistic Prayer IV - this is the longest of all the four canons and has a beautiful, more extensively drawn out description of salvation history. One of the unique features of this prayer is that it has its own proper Preface, which is mandatory whenever this prayer is used. As a result this Canon is seldom used on Sundays of Advent, Lent and Easter, seasons which have their own prefaces. It is probably the least used of all the four Canons.

In addition there are currently in the Roman Missal two additional Eucharistic Prayers for Masses focused on reconciliation (I use them occasionally during Lenten weekdays) and four others for Masses for Various Needs (Masses with special groups or intentions).

This was a somewhat long answer to a simple question, but I hope it helps us understand this central part of our worship, and the options offered in praying it. This is a great bulletin to take with you and read on vacation somewhere, lying in a hammock while sipping on a drink! I hope you all have the chance to do that this summer.

God bless you all,

Father Ray
Classes will on Wednesday, September 20th for Candidates and Sponsors.

We have a great team of teachers who will be the presenters on the teachings of the Catholic Church along with DVDs from the Symbolon Series.

Participants will enter fully into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil which will be celebrated on Holy Saturday evening in 2018.

Each participant will have a sponsor who will support them their faith journey. The sponsor needs to be a fully initiated practicing Catholic. If a candidate does not have someone to ask, we have parishioners who would be honored to serve as a sponsor.

For more information on the RCIA program, please contact Sister Betty Ann at 973-427-7873 or by email: sareligoused13@gmail.com

Thank you

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a
After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a “tiny whispering sound.”

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5
Paul is deeply pained because the Jews - in spite of everything that has been given to them - have rejected Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33
Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, “Lord save me!” Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.

THANK YOU, JUSTIN AND EVAN!

We gratefully acknowledge the recent and very generous donations from Justin and Evan Pidane to our parish food pantry. The brothers, students at St. Anthony School, ran a lemonade stand this summer and with the money they earned donated an abundance of food to our pantry. The boys not only did the actual shopping for the food, but delivered it to the pantry as well. Many, many thanks to Justin and Evan for their outstanding example of charity in action. (This is the 2nd year in a row that the brothers have done this.)

The boat carrying the disciples was a few miles out to sea when Jesus, walking on the water, came toward them. Seeing they were frightened Jesus said, “Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid.” Matthew 14:27 When Peter showed faith and walked toward Jesus on the water, his faith faltered and he began to sink, crying out to Jesus to save him.

Jesus saw how hard it was for His disciples to keep their faith even though they witnessed first hand His miracles. Jesus knows it is also hard for us to not lose faith. If you begin to doubt, repeat the words of Jesus... “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” Matthew 14:31

Have you ever heard anyone say this before?
